LOCAL BRIEFS.

A new rural free delivery has been or-dered for Charleston. Wasatch county, to begin Sept. 1. The regular monthly meeting of the Caledonian ladies' auxiliary has been postponed until September.

The remains of J. C. Saunders, formerly a resident of Park City, have been shipped to Leadville for final interment. The Sait Lake Electrical Supply company is about to expend $1,500 in making additions to its south East Temple street establishment.

A large gang of men are cutting down the sidewalk on the east side of East Temple street, between South Tmple and North Temple streets.

Edward Haslam, Joseph Everett. A. Fleming, Francis Davis and E. Fleming are camping on the Weber river, where they are catching plenty of fish.

Great Salt Lake has failen four inches within the last two weeks. No comparison can be made with last year, as the Garfield record was found to be unreli-

Secretary Bateman of the D. A. & M. society is receiving quantities of samples of badges, cards and various kinds, etc., for the coming state fair, to pass upon and accept.

Mys. Almira Miller of 445 south Third West street died yesterday, after suffer-ing for years from stomach troubles. She leaves a large family of children. The funeral will be held tomorrow afterwood, Bishop James C. Watson officiating.

A motor tricycle is exhibited in front of a shop on south East Temple street. It is valued at $250, and is guaranteed to never upset. It is of four-horse power, and will draw a small pack wagon after it wherever the rider may desire to go.

Dealers in harvesting machinery report a steady and reliable trade in mowers, reapers and binders, twine and general harvesting machinery supplies. The farmers are busy with their harvesting, and so far reports are gratifying.

The big engine at the new west side plant of the Utah Light & Power company will be turned over today, by steam for the first time, and later in the week the great plant will be in running order. The company is now prepared for any emergency, for any kind of a demand that may be made upon it.

A local retired officer said today that there are now enough retired brigadier generals in the regular army to be organized into a regiment. He thinks they ought to organize, anyway, an association as a sort of military F. F. V. The salary of each one of these officers is from 34,000 to $5,900 per year.

The state board of equalization has returned from Rich county, where it found the arsessment satisfactory. The board has yet to visit it countries to personally investigate the local systems of assessment. These countries are Beaver, Emery, Grand, Garfield, Kane, Millard, Plute, Summit, Uintah and Wayne.

Rev. H. M. A. Briggs of Jersey City will be in the city next Wednesday, to remain the remainder of the month, and mil the pulpit of the First Congregational church. Hon. C. E. Allen filled the pulpit pesterday, very acceptably. Rev. E. i. Gosben is expected to follow in September, and be installed as paster in October.

A prominent architect says that people are leaving this city for the Pacific coast to remain, owing to the high cost of living here, and the fact that wages are as high in San Francisco as in Sait Lake. However, he believes that owing to the idvent of the railroads, the city will make headway, and that the fall trade will be good.

Rev. Richard Wake has been supplying the Phillips Congregational pulpit for the last month, and for the ensuing two Sus days. Principal B. M. Hogen of Gardos academy will preach. Mr. Wake will the preach for two Sundays more, and by that time Rev. P. A. Simpkin will be home from the old country, where he is visiting with his parents.

An effort will be made to have Judge Miner look into the fessibility of charging the location of his proposed Warm Springs cantiarium from the city property to the Hudson Smith location close by the railrond, and where it is claimed the water attractions are superior. This latter location is owned by the Short Line but it is claimed that the Judge cound secure the same from the railroad company on very reasonable terms.

A local automobile dealer reports sale of two machines a week, the prefence being for gasoline cars. Eletric aumobiles do very well in large cities whe charging stations are within easy really in western cities they are being by the control of th beining by the gasoline machine, which may be replenished at any country grocery store. It takes several hours to recharge an electric automobile, and they are over one-third heavier than the caroline machine.

John A. Saunders, whose death occurred at Disinore last Friday, from pneumonia, was buried, yesteday afterneon, the funderal being held from the O'Donneil unders laking parlors under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. ## TO DRIVE THEM OUT.

Movement on Foot to Rid the City of Disreputable Negroes.

Mr. William Pelican, commonly known as Pelican Bill, the pet pelican at Calacr's park, shed his sweet spirit last night, and is no more. He was 'Talsed on the bettle' by the late Max Peters, and on the latter's death the bird was transferred to Calder's nark. He flourished there all right until yesterday, when he took to wandering beyond the confines of the nark and strolled off among the neighboring gardens. The owners of the same took him for a wild pelican, and made love to him with oftenforks. He was castly wounded, as being tame he nade ne attempt at first to fly, and on being recovered afterwards by one of the park keeners, the sufferer was taken back to the park, where he died last night. There is a movement among a number of the more respectable colored peopie to drive out of town a gang of disreputable negroes who make their headquarters in Commercial street, and are said to exist off the earnings of colored female birds of prey, and such money as they can clean up by grafting. W. H. Chambers, a colored barber, is at We pay 4 per cent interest per annum on $1 to $5,000. Zion's Savings Bank. & Trust Co. Joseph F. ### NORWEGIAN CURE FOR DRUNK. ENNESS.

In Norway, drunkenness is punished by in Norway, drameness is punshed by imprisonment. As soon as a man is incarcerated the delinquent has a loaf and wine morning and evening. The bread is served in a wooden bowl full of wine, in which it has been soaked for an hour. The first day the drunkard swallows his allowance willingly enough. The second day it seems less nigospin. At the ent of day it seems less pleasing. At the end of eight or ten days, prisoners have been known to abstain altogether from the food thus pittlessly presented. This course of treatment inished, the drunkard, ex-cept in rare instances, is radically cured.
